

WARP

Meaning: WARP (verb): to become bent or twisted out of shape, or to distort in perception or experience.

1. The fabric began to warp after being exposed to moisture for too long.
2. His sense of time seemed to warp as he lost himself in the music.
3. Scientists are exploring theories about how black holes could warp space and time.
4. The old wooden door had started to warp, making it difficult to close properly.
5. In the virtual reality game, the environment can warp around the player's movements.
6. The fabric of space-time can warp under the influence of massive objects like black holes.
7. Her perception of reality began to warp as the stress of the situation overwhelmed her.
8. The artist used bold colors and unconventional shapes to create a sense of warp and movement in the painting.
9. When they discovered the old map, they realized it had been warped by water damage over the years.
10. The magician's trick seemed to warp the laws of physics, leaving the audience in awe.
11. The fabric of space-time began to warp under the influence of the massive black hole.
12. As the heat intensified, the metal began to warp, distorting its original shape.
13. She could feel her perception of time warp when she was deeply engrossed in her painting.
14. The magician performed an illusion that made it seem as if reality itself had warped before our eyes.
15. In the sci-fi novel, the crew used a warp drive to travel faster than light across the galaxy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/warp>