

WARPING

Meaning: WARPING: The process of bending or distorting something, often due to external forces such as heat or altered perceptions.

1. The constant heat caused the wooden boards to start warping over time.
2. She felt her perception of reality warping as the vivid colors swirled around her.
3. In the realm of physics, warping of spacetime can lead to fascinating phenomena like black holes.
4. The artist experimented with warping the traditional forms of sculpture to create something unique.
5. As the story unfolded, the character's memories began warping, blurring the line between past and present.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/warping>