

WASH-OFF

Meaning: Wash-off refers to the act of removing dirt, sweat, or other substances from a surface or skin, typically by rinsing with water.

1. The rain caused the dirt on the car to wash off effortlessly.
2. After the workout, I made sure to wash off the sweat and grime from my skin.
3. The gentle waves helped to wash off the sand from our feet as we walked along the beach.
4. She used a special soap to wash off the paint after her art project.
5. He jumped in the river to wash off the mud that had accumulated during the hike.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/wash-off>