

WASHHOUSE

Meaning: A washhouse is a building or room designated for washing clothes, often serving as a communal space for laundry and social interaction.

1. The old washhouse behind the cottage was filled with memories of family gatherings.
2. In rural areas, the washhouse served as a communal space for laundry and socializing.
3. She transformed the washhouse into a cozy craft room, complete with artistic supplies.
4. During the summer months, the washhouse became a refuge from the heat, offering cool respite.
5. The historic tour included a visit to the washhouse, highlighting its importance in daily life centuries ago.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/washhouse>