

WASHING

Meaning: Washing refers to the act of cleaning something, typically by using water and often with soap or detergent.

1. Washing the dishes every evening has become part of my routine.
2. He spent the afternoon washing his car until it sparkled in the sunlight.
3. The washing machine broke down right before laundry day, causing a big inconvenience.
4. After washing her hands, she felt much more relaxed and ready to tackle the day.
5. Washing the windows allowed more natural light to flood into the room.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/washing>