

WATCHER

Meaning: Watcher: a person who observes attentively, especially in a specific context or for a particular purpose.

1. The watcher stood silently in the shadows, observing every move with keen interest.
2. As a nature enthusiast, she became an avid watcher of the migratory patterns of birds.
3. In the darkened room, the watcher felt a strange connection to the unfolding drama on the screen.
4. He was known in the community as a vigilant watcher, always looking out for his neighbors.
5. The ancient ruins were said to be guarded by a mysterious watcher who protected their secrets.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/watcher>