

WATER-BOUND

Meaning: Water-bound refers to being located in or dependent on water, often describing vessels or habitats that are associated with or sustained by water.

1. The water-bound vessel drifted lazily along the river.
2. Many species of plants thrive in water-bound environments like wetlands.
3. The artist captured the beauty of water-bound landscapes in her paintings.
4. His dreams of adventure were often interrupted by the realities of a water-bound life.
5. The community organized a cleanup to improve their water-bound habitat and protect local wildlife.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/water-bound>