

WATERFLOOD

Meaning: Waterflood (noun): an overflow of water that inundates land, typically due to excessive rainfall or rising water levels.

1. The heavy rain caused a waterflood that overwhelmed the local riverbanks.
2. After the waterflood receded, residents began the daunting task of cleaning up their homes.
3. Engineers are working on improving the drainage system to prevent future waterflood events.
4. The community came together to support those affected by the devastating waterflood.
5. Scientists are studying the impact of climate change on the frequency of waterfloods in coastal areas.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/waterflood>