

WAVERER

Meaning: A waverer is a person who is indecisive or uncertain, often unable to choose between options.

1. The waverer stood at the crossroads, unsure of which path to take.
2. In debates, a waverer can shift the balance of opinion with their indecision.
3. Her reputation as a waverer made others hesitant to rely on her for important decisions.
4. The waverer's lack of commitment frustrated the project team as deadlines approached.
5. While some are decisive leaders, others remain waverers, caught between options.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/waverer>