

WAXWORKER

Meaning: A waxworker is an artisan who specializes in shaping and crafting figures or objects from wax, often creating lifelike representations.

1. The waxworker skillfully shaped the molten wax into lifelike figures.
2. After years of training, the waxworker mastered the art of creating realistic facial features.
3. Visitors were amazed by the waxworker's ability to capture the essence of famous historical figures.
4. In the dimly lit studio, the waxworker meticulously painted the details on the sculptures.
5. The waxworker's creations were so lifelike that they often fooled unsuspecting tourists.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/waxworker>