

WEAK-KNEED

Meaning: Weak-kneed: feeling faint, unsteady, or overwhelmed, often due to strong emotions or nervousness.

1. She felt weak-kneed as she stepped onto the stage for her first public performance.
2. After hearing the surprising news, he stood there weak-kneed, struggling to process the moment.
3. The breathtaking view from the mountain peak left them weak-kneed with awe.
4. In the intense final moments of the game, the player became weak-kneed from the pressure.
5. The heartfelt proposal caught her off guard, leaving her weak-kneed and speechless.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/weak-kneed>