

WEAK

Meaning: Weak: lacking strength, power, or resilience; fragile or feeble in physical or structural capacity.

1. The bridge was deemed unsafe due to its weak structural integrity.
2. She felt weak after running the marathon without proper training.
3. His argument was weak and failed to convince the jury.
4. The team's weak performance in the first half left fans disappointed.
5. Despite her weak voice, she managed to deliver a powerful message.
6. The bridge was deemed weak after the recent storm, prompting engineers to conduct a thorough inspection.
7. She felt weak after running the marathon but was proud of her accomplishment.
8. His arguments were weak and failed to convince the audience of his point of view.
9. Despite his weak start in the competition, he gradually improved and finished strong.
10. The team's weak defense allowed their opponents to score easily throughout the match.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/weak>