

WEAKLING

Meaning: A weakling is a person who lacks strength, courage, or assertiveness, often perceived as timid or ineffectual.

1. The team's star player called him a weakling for not standing up during the argument.
2. She refused to let anyone label her as a weakling, determined to prove her strength.
3. In the animal kingdom, the weakling often becomes the prey of stronger predators.
4. His constant self-doubt made him feel like a weakling compared to his more confident peers.
5. Despite being a weakling in the eyes of his classmates, he excelled in academics and art.
6. He was often teased in school for being a weakling.
7. Despite his size, he proved that a weakling can have a strong spirit.
8. The character in the movie started as a weakling but eventually became a hero.
9. She refused to let anyone label her a weakling just because she didn't conform.
10. In his mind, being a weakling was synonymous with being vulnerable.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/weakling>