

WEARIFUL

Meaning: Weariful: feeling tired, fatigued, or drained due to prolonged exertion or stress.

1. The long hours spent in the office left her feeling weariful and drained.
2. After the exhausting hike, they all looked weariful and ready for a rest.
3. His weariful expression revealed just how tiring the day had been.
4. The children, weariful from playing in the sun, fell asleep as soon as they got home.
5. She tried to hide her weariful demeanor, but everyone could see she needed a break.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/weariful>