

WEATHER-FEND

Meaning: Weather-fend (verb): to protect or shield against adverse weather conditions.

1. The new fabric technology is designed to weather-fend against harsh conditions.
2. Farmers rely on weather-fend systems to protect their crops during unpredictable storms.
3. Camping gear with weather-fend capabilities ensures a comfortable experience in any climate.
4. She invested in a weather-fend jacket to keep herself dry during the rainy season.
5. The architect specified weather-fend materials for the building to withstand extreme weather events.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/weather-fend>