

WEATHERING

Meaning: Weathering is the process of wearing away or altering the physical and chemical characteristics of materials, such as rocks or structures, due to environmental factors over time.

1. The weathering of the ancient rocks revealed layers of history that fascinated geologists.
2. Her artwork beautifully captured the weathering effects of time on the old barn.
3. The coastal cliffs showed significant weathering due to constant exposure to wind and waves.
4. He studied the weathering process to understand how it affects soil formation.
5. The weathering of the stone sculptures highlighted the passage of time and nature's influence.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/weathering>