

WEATHERPROOF

Meaning: Weatherproof (adjective): resistant to the effects of weather, designed to protect against rain, wind, and other elements.

1. The new jacket is designed to be weatherproof, making it perfect for outdoor adventures.
2. They installed weatherproof windows to ensure the house remains energy efficient during storms.
3. Before heading out on the hike, she checked that her gear was weatherproof and durable.
4. The contractor assured us that the roofing materials were weatherproof and built to last.
5. For his camping trip, he packed a weatherproof bag to keep his belongings dry in case of rain.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/weatherproof>