

WEAVERFISH

Meaning: A weaverfish is a type of fish characterized by its venomous spines and remarkable camouflage, often found in rocky marine environments.

1. The weaverfish is known for its venomous spines, which can cause painful stings.
2. While diving, I spotted a weaverfish hiding among the rocks, its camouflage almost perfect.
3. Many fishermen are cautious of weaverfish due to their sharp, toxic spines.
4. The weaverfish plays an important role in the marine ecosystem, helping to control prey populations.
5. After stepping on a weaverfish, she quickly learned to be more careful around the reef.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/weaverfish>