WEB-TOED

Meaning: Web-toed refers to having toes that are connected by a membrane or webbing, enhancing swimming ability and sometimes regarded as a symbol of good fortune in certain cultures.

1. The unique web-toed structure of the animal's feet allows it to swim with incredible agility.
2. In some cultures, being born with web-toed features is considered a sign of good fortune.
3. The scientist discovered a new species of frog that was distinctly web-toed, aiding its aquatic lifestyle.
4. Her web-toed condition made her an excellent swimmer, outperforming her peers in every race.
5. Web-toed animals often exhibit adaptations that enhance their ability to navigate through water.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/web-toed