

WEBBED

Meaning: Webbed: having skin or membranes between the toes or parts, facilitating movement in water, or featuring interconnected patterns resembling a web.

1. The duck glided gracefully across the pond with its webbed feet propelling it effortlessly.
2. She admired the intricate patterns on the webbed leaves of the water lily.
3. The biologist explained how webbed toes help some animals swim more efficiently.
4. After the rain, the webbed plants in the garden looked vibrant and full of life.
5. The frog leaped from one lily pad to another, showcasing its webbed hind legs in action.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/webbed>