

WEBBY

Meaning: Webby: having a soft, light, and often slightly sticky or gooey texture resembling that of a web.

1. The webby texture of the marshmallow made it irresistible to the children.
2. After the rain, the once dry leaves became webby and glistened in the sunlight.
3. He admired the webby design of the art installation, which seemed to float in mid-air.
4. The spider spun a webby trap that shimmered like diamonds in the morning light.
5. Her voice took on a webby quality when she spoke about her favorite fantasy novels.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/webby>