

WEBFOOT

Meaning: Webfoot (noun): a foot that is equipped with webbing between the toes, typically found in aquatic animals like ducks, enabling them to swim efficiently.

1. A webfooted duck glided gracefully across the shimmering lake.
2. The scientist studied the adaptations of webfoot animals in their aquatic environments.
3. During the nature walk, we spotted a webfooted bird nestled among the reeds.
4. The children's book featured a charming webfoot character that delighted young readers.
5. In her painting, the artist captured the essence of a webfooted creature exploring the shoreline.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/webfoot>