

WEBWORM

Meaning: Webworm: a type of caterpillar that creates silk webs on plants, often causing significant damage to crops and vegetation.

1. The webworm infestation spread quickly through the apple orchard, devastating the trees.
2. Farmers were alarmed to discover webworms have invaded their cornfields, threatening the crop yield.
3. After noticing the webbing in the bushes, the gardener realized he had a webworm problem on his hands.
4. Efforts to control the webworm population included natural predators and organic pesticides.
5. Education about webworms is crucial for local gardeners to prevent significant damage to their plants.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/webworm>