

WEEP

Meaning: To weep means to express sorrow or grief by shedding tears.

1. She began to weep softly at the thought of her lost friend.
2. The movie was so touching that it made many in the audience weep.
3. As the rain poured down, he couldn't help but weep for the memories that haunted him.
4. Children often weep when they are overwhelmed by emotions they cannot express.
5. In the quiet of the night, she would weep for the dreams that seemed out of reach.
6. She began to weep quietly as she read the heartfelt letter.
7. The movie was so touching that it made many audience members weep.
8. In times of grief, it's natural to weep for the loss of a loved one.
9. The child would weep at the slightest hint of disappointment.
10. As the sun set, he felt a deep sadness and couldn't help but weep.
11. She began to weep softly as the memories flooded back.
12. In the quiet of the night, he couldn't help but weep for lost opportunities.
13. The movie was so touching that the entire audience started to weep together.
14. As the rain poured down, she felt an overwhelming urge to weep for her past mistakes.
15. Even the strongest among them could not hold back their tears and began to weep openly.
16. She couldn't help but weep at the heartwarming reunion of the long-lost siblings.
17. The haunting melody of the piano made everyone in the audience weep silently.
18. Amidst the chaos of the storm, he found a moment to weep for lost opportunities.
19. As the final scene unfolded, she felt a deep urge to weep for the characters she had grown to love.
20. He wept tears of joy as he held his newborn daughter for the first time.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/weep>