

WEEPER

Meaning: A weeper is a type of plant, particularly a tree or shrub, that has drooping branches or foliage, often giving the appearance of crying or mourning.

1. The weeper in the garden shed has been crying for days without a break.
2. After the storm, I noticed a weeper tree shedding its leaves as if mourning the weather.
3. During the play, the actor portrayed a weeper who couldn't control his tears during the tragic scenes.
4. The old folk tale spoke of a weeper who wandered the woods, lamenting lost love.
5. As the movie reached its climax, the audience collectively turned into weepers, unable to hold back their emotions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/weeper>