

WEET-WEET

Meaning: 'WEET-WEET' refers to a high-pitched sound resembling a whistle or call, often associated with trains or certain birds.

1. The children laughed as they imitated the sound of the train, chanting "weet-weet!"
2. As the owl hooted in the night, a distant "weet-weet" echoed through the trees.
3. In the animated movie, the quirky bird often exclaimed "weet-weet!" to express excitement.
4. She could hear the distant call of the train, its whistle piercing the quiet with a sharp "weet-weet."
5. To catch the attention of her friends, she playfully shouted "weet-weet!" across the park.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/weet-weet>