

WEEVILED

Meaning: 'WEEVILED' refers to being infested or damaged by weevils, particularly in stored food or grain, rendering it unfit for use.

1. The old wooden chest had been weeviled, making its contents unfit for use.
2. After months of neglect, the grain stored in the barn was completely weeviled.
3. She discovered that the flour had been weeviled, leaving her unable to bake the cake.
4. The farmer was frustrated to find that his harvest had been weeviled by pests.
5. Despite their careful storage, the seeds became weeviled, rendering them useless for planting.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/weeviled>