

WEIGHING

Meaning: Weighing: the process of evaluating or considering the relative merits or importance of different choices or factors.

1. The act of weighing the pros and cons helped her make a better decision.
2. He spent the afternoon weighing different options for his new car.
3. She was carefully weighing the ingredients to ensure the recipe would turn out perfectly.
4. The scientist was weighing the samples to determine their exact mass.
5. Weighing his words, he chose to remain silent rather than escalate the argument.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/weighing>