

WELCH

Meaning: To welch means to renege on a promise or fail to fulfill an obligation, especially in the context of agreements or bets.

1. The team decided to welch on their promise to donate to the charity.
2. He was known to welch on bets, leaving his friends frustrated and disappointed.
3. When confronted about the deal, he tried to welch his way out of responsibility.
4. It's unfair to welch on an agreement after everyone has put in so much effort.
5. If you welch on your commitments, people will start to lose trust in you.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/welch>