

WELL

Meaning: "WELL" (adverb) means in a good or satisfactory manner; effectively or successfully.

1. She felt well after resting for the entire weekend.
2. The project was completed well ahead of schedule.
3. He spoke well of his colleagues during the meeting.
4. It's important to eat well for overall health.
5. The team performed well under pressure, securing the win.
6. She felt well after taking the medicine.
7. The project turned out well despite the tight deadlines.
8. He speaks English well, which impresses his colleagues.
9. It's well known that exercise benefits mental health.
10. She played the piano so well that the audience was mesmerized.
11. She felt well prepared for the exam after studying all week.
12. The well was deep, providing fresh water for the entire village.
13. He speaks so well that everyone is captivated by his stories.
14. It's important to maintain a well-balanced diet for good health.
15. They settled the dispute in a well-reasoned manner that satisfied both parties.
16. She performed well in her exams, surpassing all expectations.
17. It's important to stay well hydrated during hot weather.
18. He spoke so well at the conference that many people asked for his advice.
19. After a long week, I finally felt well enough to go out with friends.
20. The team worked well together, leading to a successful project completion.
21. She performed well on the exam, exceeding everyone's expectations.
22. It's important to stay well-hydrated during hot summer days.

23. The team worked well together, showcasing their strong collaboration skills.
24. He felt well-rested after a long night of uninterrupted sleep.
25. The presentation went well, impressing both the audience and the judges.
26. She felt well after a good night's sleep.
27. He explained the project well, making it easy for everyone to understand.
28. It's important to eat well for maintaining good health.
29. The team performed well under pressure during the final match.
30. She well remembered the details of their last conversation.
31. She played the piano so well that the audience was left in awe.
32. After a long day at work, he felt well-deserved relief in the warm bath.
33. It's important to eat well if you want to maintain good health.
34. The project was completed well ahead of schedule, impressing the stakeholders.
35. She spoke so well during the presentation that she received a standing ovation.

*Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/well>*