

WEND

Meaning: WEND: to proceed or make one's way, especially in a gradual or indirect manner.

1. As the sun began to set, the travelers decided to wend their way back home through the forest.
2. She preferred to wend through the bustling streets rather than take the crowded subway.
3. The river wends its way through the valley, creating stunning views along the journey.
4. They would often wend their way to the old café, reminiscing about their college days.
5. With a gentle breeze at their backs, they wended toward the distant horizon, eager for adventure.
6. As the sun began to set, we chose to wend our way through the quiet forest trails.
7. After a long day of exploring the city, I would often wend my way back to the hotel along the riverside.
8. They decided to wend their journey slowly, taking time to admire the beautiful landscapes along the route.
9. In his old age, he preferred to wend his days in peaceful solitude, reflecting on the past.
10. The winding road forced us to wend carefully, navigating sharp turns and hidden curves.
11. As the sun began to set, we decided to wend our way back through the forest.
12. After a long day of hiking, we would wend our way to the campsite for a much-needed rest.
13. The old path would wend its way beside the river, offering beautiful views of the water.
14. With a gentle breeze at our backs, we wended through the winding streets of the quaint village.
15. It's important to wend carefully through life's challenges, taking time to reflect on each choice.
16. As the sun began to wend its way down the horizon, the sky transformed into a canvas of colors.
17. She decided to wend her path through the forest, enjoying the serenity of nature around her.
18. After the long meeting, we finally began to wend our way back to the office, grateful for the end of the day.
19. The river wends its course through the valley, creating a peaceful backdrop for the small village.
20. With each step, he felt the weight of his worries begin to wend away, leaving him lighter and more at ease.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/wend>