

WEPT

Meaning: Wept: past tense of weep; to express sorrow or joy by shedding tears.

1. She wept openly at the news of her friend's passing.
2. The child wept tears of joy when she saw her birthday cake.
3. He wept silently in the corner, overwhelmed by his emotions.
4. As the movie reached its climax, many in the audience wept.
5. She wept for the lost opportunities that could never be reclaimed.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/wept>