

WHANG

Meaning: Whang: to throw or hit something with a forceful motion, often producing a loud noise.

1. The kids whang the frisbee across the park, laughing as it soars through the air.
2. With a swift motion, he whanged the door shut, startling everyone in the room.
3. She let out a joyful scream as she whanged the piñata with a stick, sending candy flying everywhere.
4. The mechanic needed to whang the metal back into shape before it could be reinstalled.
5. As they played their favorite game, the sound of the ball whanging against the wall echoed in the empty garage.
6. He gave the door a good whang to get it unstuck.
7. The sound of the metal whang echoed through the workshop.
8. She whanged the hammer against the nail with great force.
9. As the ball hit the metal fence, it made a loud whang.
10. In frustration, he whanged the table with his fist.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/whang>