

WHARP

Meaning: 'Wharp' refers to a twisting or bending movement, often used to describe the way wind or sound alters or distorts its surroundings.

1. The wind began to wharp around the corners of the building, creating an eerie atmosphere.
2. His voice had a peculiar way of warping the truth, making even the simplest statements sound dramatic.
3. As the artist painted, the colors seemed to wharp and blend into one another, creating a mesmerizing effect.
4. She felt her perception of reality start to wharp after hours of staring at the optical illusion.
5. The fabric of the old quilt had begun to wharp with age, distorting its once perfect shape.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/wharp>