

WHEW

Meaning: "Whew" is an exclamation used to express relief or to indicate that something has been completed or endured, often after a stressful or challenging situation.

1. Whew, I finally finished that huge project just in time for the deadline.
2. After running the marathon, she collapsed on the grass and exclaimed, "Whew, that was tough!"
3. He let out a relieved "whew" when he found out that the meeting was postponed.
4. Whew, it's nice to take a break after such a hectic week at work.
5. As the roller coaster came to a stop, the riders all shouted, "Whew, what a thrill!"
6. Whew, I can't believe we finished the project just in time.
7. After running the marathon, she let out a relieved "whew" as she crossed the finish line.
8. Whew, that was a close call; I almost missed my flight!
9. When the final exam results were posted, he sighed, "Whew, I passed!"
10. She exclaimed "whew" after finally solving the complicated puzzle.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/whew>