

WHIMPER

Meaning: Whimper: to make a low, weak, or plaintive sound, often expressing fear, pain, or distress.

1. The puppy began to whimper softly as it realized it was alone in the dark room.
2. Despite her brave facade, she couldn't help but whimper at the thought of losing her best friend.
3. He let out a faint whimper when he accidentally stubbed his toe against the furniture.
4. As the storm raged outside, the kitten curled up and began to whimper in fear.
5. The child tried to be brave, but a quiet whimper escaped his lips as the dentist approached.
6. The puppy began to whimper when it realized it was alone in the dark room.
7. She tried to stifle her whimper as the pain from the injury became unbearable.
8. In the corner of the room, the child let out a soft whimper, seeking comfort from her mother.
9. The old dog would whimper softly whenever the thunderstorm rolled in, anxious and afraid.
10. He couldn't help but whimper in disappointment when he learned the concert had been canceled.
11. The puppy began to whimper softly when it realized it was alone in the dark room.
12. She tried to stifle a whimper as the pain from her injury flared up unexpectedly.
13. He could hear the faint whimper of the wind as it swept through the empty streets at night.
14. After losing the game, he let out a quiet whimper of disappointment, feeling the weight of his failure.
15. The child's whimper caught the attention of the nearby adults, who rushed to see if he was okay.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/whimper>