

WHISP

Meaning: Whisp (verb): to make a soft, gentle sound or to speak in a quiet, hushed tone.

1. The wind began to whisper through the trees as dusk fell.
2. She leaned in closer, her voice barely a whisper as she shared her secret.
3. In the quiet library, all that could be heard was the whisper of turning pages.
4. A soft whisper caught his attention, drawing him toward the shadowy corner of the room.
5. He could feel her breath whisper against his ear, sending shivers down his spine.
6. She could hear the faint whisp of the wind through the trees.
7. As he leaned in to share a secret, his voice was just a soft whisp in the crowded room.
8. The artist captured the ethereal quality of the mist with a delicate whisp of white paint.
9. With a gentle whisp, the leaves danced down from the branches in the autumn breeze.
10. In the quiet of the library, a whisp of paper caught her attention as it fluttered to the floor.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/whisp>