

WHITE-FRONTED

Meaning: White-fronted refers to a characteristic of certain birds, specifically denoting a white patch or marking on the front of their heads or faces.

1. The white-fronted bee-eater is known for its striking plumage and agile flight.
2. In the early morning light, the white-fronted geese gathered along the riverbank.
3. During our hike, we spotted a white-fronted capuchin swinging through the trees.
4. The museum's exhibit featured a rare white-fronted parrot, captivating all who visited.
5. At the nature reserve, the white-fronted heron stood still, watching for fish.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/white-fronted>