

WHITE-HOT

Meaning: White-hot: extremely hot and glowing white, often used metaphorically to describe intense fervor or passion.

1. The metal was white-hot as it was pulled from the forge, glowing brightly in the dim light.
2. Her passion for the project turned into a white-hot intensity that inspired everyone around her.
3. In the competitive world of fashion, trends can change at a white-hot pace, leaving little room for hesitation.
4. The debate reached a white-hot climax, with both sides passionately defending their viewpoints.
5. He felt a white-hot anger rise within him as he confronted the injustice he had witnessed.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/white-hot>