

WHITEWASHER

Meaning: A whitewasher is a person who conceals or glosses over faults, often by manipulating information or reports to create a more favorable impression.

1. The company's reputation suffered after the public discovered that the whitewasher had manipulated the report.
2. In a surprising turn of events, the whitewasher was revealed to be an insider with ulterior motives.
3. Many critics accused the politician of being a whitewasher, attempting to erase the scandals from his past.
4. The whitewasher's efforts to gloss over the issues only fueled further skepticism among the community.
5. During the investigation, it became clear that the whitewasher had misled the board about the project's failures.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/whitewasher>