WHOOP

Meaning: WHOOP (verb): to make a loud, excited shout or cry, often expressing joy or enthusiasm.

1. The crowd let out a loud whoop of excitement as the band took the stage.
2. After winning the championship, the team celebrated with a joyful whoop and a victory dance.
3. She couldn’t help but give a whoop of delight when she saw her surprise birthday party.
4. With a whoop, the children dashed off to the playground, eager to start their day of fun.
5. He let out a whoop of frustration when he realized he had forgotten his keys again.
6. The crowd erupted in a whoop of joy when their team scored the winning goal.
7. She let out a loud whoop as she crossed the finish line, exhilarated by her victory.
8. As the roller coaster climbed to its peak, we all prepared to whoop in excitement on the way down.
9. He couldn't help but whoop with laughter at the comedian's hilarious punchline.
10. The children gave a whoop of delight when they saw the surprise party set up for them.
11. She let out a loud whoop of joy when she heard the good news.
12. The crowd erupted in a whoop of excitement as the band took the stage.
13. He gave a whoop of delight after scoring the winning goal.
14. As the roller coaster plunged down, everyone screamed and whooped in exhilaration.
15. The kids ran around the park, whooping and laughing as they played tag.
16. She let out a whoop of delight when she saw her birthday surprise.
17. The crowd erupted in a whoop as the team scored the winning goal.
18. He gave a loud whoop, startling everyone in the quiet library.
19. After the thrilling ride, the kids couldn't help but whoop with excitement.
20. The whoop of the owl echoed through the still night air.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/whoop