WIDOW-MAKER

Meaning: Widow-maker: a term used to describe a dangerous object or situation that poses a significant risk of injury or death.

1. The massive tree fell with a loud crack, earning its reputation as a widow-maker among the local hikers.

2. In the world of sports, that particular play was dubbed the widow-maker due to its high risk of injury.

3. The old mining equipment was a widow-maker, as many workers had lost their lives while operating it.

4. During the storm, the falling branches were a widow-maker, posing a severe threat to anyone caught outside.

5. He approached the treacherous cliff with caution, fully aware that it was considered a widow-maker by experienced climbers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/widow-maker