

WIDOW-WAIL

Meaning: Widow-wail: a mournful cry or lamentation expressing deep sorrow, often associated with the loss of a loved one.

1. The mournful sound of the widow-wail echoed through the village, a haunting reminder of loss.
2. As the sun set, the widow-wail began, drawing the community together in shared grief.
3. Legends spoke of the widow-wail as a call to the spirits, mourning those who had passed.
4. With every note of the widow-wail, memories of her late husband flooded her mind.
5. The traditional widow-wail was performed at the funeral, adding a layer of sorrow to the somber occasion.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/widow-wail>