

WIDOW

Meaning: A widow is a woman whose spouse has died and who has not remarried.

1. The widow found solace in her garden, tending to the flowers that reminded her of happier times.
2. After her husband passed away, she became an active member of a support group for widows.
3. The community rallied around the widow, offering help with her daily chores and companionship.
4. She wore a delicate black dress to the memorial, a traditional symbol of her status as a widow.
5. In the novel, the widow's journey of healing and self-discovery resonated deeply with readers.
6. The widow sat quietly on the park bench, reflecting on her late husband's life.
7. After the funeral, the widow found solace in the support of her close friends.
8. She wore a delicate black dress as a sign of respect for her late partner, a tradition many widows follow.
9. In her grief, the widow discovered a new strength she never knew she had.
10. The community rallied around the widow, offering assistance and companionship during her difficult time.
11. The widow found solace in her garden, where she spent countless hours tending to the flowers.
12. After years of grief, the widow finally decided to move to a new city for a fresh start.
13. She became known in the community as the kind widow who always offered help to those in need.
14. During the support group meeting, the widow shared her story and inspired others to speak about their own losses.
15. In her late husband's honor, the widow organized a charity event to raise funds for cancer research.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/widow>