

WIDOWLY

Meaning: Widowly: possessing a mournful or melancholic quality associated with loss or bereavement, often evoking a sense of nostalgia or sorrow.

1. The old house had a widowly atmosphere, filled with memories of a long-lost love.
2. She wore a widowly black dress that seemed to absorb the light around her.
3. His widowly demeanor made it clear that he was still grieving the loss of his partner.
4. The garden, once vibrant, now had a widowly air, with wilted flowers and overgrown weeds.
5. In her widowly solitude, she found solace in writing letters to her deceased husband.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/widowly>