

WILLINGNESS

Meaning: Willingness is the quality of being ready and eager to do something or to agree to a proposal.

1. Her willingness to help others often inspires those around her.
2. The team's willingness to adapt to change was crucial for their success.
3. His willingness to take risks set him apart from his competitors.
4. She showed a remarkable willingness to learn new skills despite her busy schedule.
5. Their willingness to compromise made the negotiations much smoother.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/willingness>