

WINCE

Meaning: To wince is to make a slight involuntary grimace or flinch in response to pain or distress.

1. She couldn't help but wince at the sound of the glass shattering on the floor.
2. He winced in pain as the doctor applied pressure to his injured ankle.
3. The thought of facing her old rival made her wince with discomfort.
4. As the comedian delivered a particularly cringeworthy joke, the audience collectively winced.
5. I winced at the sight of the broken toy lying in the middle of the floor.
6. She couldn't help but wince when she saw the doctor prepare the needle.
7. The loud crack of thunder made him wince in anticipation of the storm.
8. As the comedian told his joke, some audience members winced at the inappropriate punchline.
9. He winced at the thought of having to confront his fears during the presentation.
10. The sudden jolt of pain caused her to wince and clutch her arm.
11. She couldn't help but wince as the doctor injected the needle into her arm.
12. He winced at the thought of how much work he had left to finish before the deadline.
13. The loud crash made everyone in the room wince in unison.
14. She winced when she saw the bill after the extravagant dinner.
15. He tried to hide his discomfort, but I could see him wince when he twisted his ankle.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/wince>