

WIND-SUCKING

Meaning: Wind-sucking refers to the behavior of sucking in air, often seen in children or animals, typically as a response to stress, boredom, or habit.

1. The child was caught wind-sucking during the school assembly, much to the amusement of his classmates.
2. Wind-sucking is often seen in young horses, as a response to stress or boredom.
3. The therapist explained that wind-sucking can be a sign of anxiety in certain animals.
4. She noticed her puppy engaging in wind-sucking behavior whenever he felt insecure.
5. The vet recommended addressing the wind-sucking habit before it caused any long-term health issues.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/wind-sucking>