

WIND-UP

Meaning: WIND-UP: A mechanism that stores energy to create motion in a toy, or a concluding remark or summary that wraps up a discussion or presentation.

1. The wind-up toy danced across the floor, captivating the children with its quirky movements.
2. After a long meeting, the manager used a clever wind-up to summarize the key points.
3. She decided to wind up her presentation with a powerful quote that resonated with the audience.
4. As the deadline approached, he felt the pressure begin to wind up, motivating him to work harder.
5. The old gramophone had a charming wind-up mechanism that fascinated music lovers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/wind-up>