

WINDBOUND

Meaning: Windbound refers to being unable to move or proceed due to the lack of favorable wind conditions.

1. The sailors were left windbound for several days, unable to continue their journey.
2. As the storm intensified, the yacht became windbound, tethered helplessly to the dock.
3. Being windbound can sometimes offer unexpected opportunities for reflection and creativity.
4. The adventurers found themselves windbound on the remote island, waiting for the weather to clear.
5. Even though they were windbound, the crew made the most of their downtime, sharing stories by the fire.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/windbound>